Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Blythe J. McGarvie, senior lecturer in the Accounting and Management unit at Harvard Business School where she teaches financial reporting and control to MBA candidates, as well as in-field and executive education classes, was elected to the Sonoco Board of Directors on February 12, 2014.

Prior to joining Harvard, McGarvie, a certified public accountant, served for 10 years as chief executive officer and founder of Leadership for International Finance, a global consulting firm specializing in leadership seminars for corporate and academic groups. During this period, she co-founded and served as Senior Fellow for Northwestern University's Kellogg Innovation Network and was a visiting leader at Shanghai-based CEIBS in 2011 and 2012. Prior to 2003, McGarvie was chief financial officer for BIC Group, a $2 billion publicly traded consumer goods company, based in Paris, France. Before joining BIC Group, McGarvie was chief financial officer for a Fortune 500 company, Hannaford Bros. Co., acquired in 1999 by Delhaize Group.

She currently serves on the Boards of Directors of Accenture, Viacom, Wawa, Inc., and LKQ Corp., and previously served on the boards of The Travelers Companies, Inc., Pepsi Bottling Group and Lafarge North America.

McGarvie has been appointed to serve on the Financial Policy and Employee and Public Responsibility Committees of the Board.

The Company has not entered into any material contracts, plans or arrangements with Ms. McGarvie. There are no family relationships between Ms. McGarvie and any other executive officer or director of the Company, and there are no arrangements or understandings pursuant to which she has been appointed. There are no transactions between the Company and Ms. McGarvie that would constitute related person transactions under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
